Peacemakers

By Dai Canol-Daleithiau **

Peace is the calm that grows in the breast.
Peace is your patience when he's not at his best.
Peace is the spine they show with a song.
Peace is forgiveness when there's been a wrong.

The makers of peace are builders of love.
The makers of peace find strength from above.
The makers of peace have wise words to say.
The makers of peace show others the way.

Peacemakers are thinkers in a black and white world.
Peacemakers are drinkers of virtue unfurled.
Peacemakers are lovers of every bright mind.
Peacemakers are teachers of all humankind.
