

Greetings – Here are the Wisconsin Welsh events for the remainder of 2019. No need to reply to the email; just come and participate in Welsh culture!

Christmas Gymanfa Ganu – November 10, 2019

The Welsh Gymanfa Ganu Association of Wisconsin (WGGAW) cordially invites you to the 41st Annual Christmas Gymanfa Ganu held on Sunday, November 10, 2019, at 2:30PM. This year, Crossroads United Methodist Church at 5901 Hogan Road, Waunakee, Wisconsin, will host the hymn sing.

We have several new features planned for the Christmas Gymanfa Ganu. New this year is accompaniment by a string quartet, the Yahara Quartet (www.yaharastringquartet.com) of Madison, Wisconsin.

Special music is provided by the Crossroads United Methodist choir and the Cambrian Singers of Madison, Wisconsin. Our director is Danny Proud, well known to the Welsh community both locally and nationally. Finally, the Order of Service will follow a lessons and carols format with Bible readings announcing the coming of and birth of the Christ child.

The Christmas Gymanfa Ganu is a great way to prepare our hearts and minds for the coming of Christmas. Please join us for a time of singing and fellowship (te bach).

Welsh Gymanfa Ganu Association of Wisconsin – 2020

Our committee will be finalizing plans for the Welsh Weekend For All on Saturday and Sunday, May 2 & 3, 2020. This year, we will be at the historic cathedral church of St. Paul the Apostle, 51 W.
