The annual Wisconsin Welsh Weekend for All is May 6 and 7, 2023 in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Join us for a sampling of Welsh culture and fellowship, and a traditional Gymanfa Ganu sponsored by The Welsh Gymanfa Ganu Association of Wisconsin, Inc.

On Saturday May 6, park your car behind Immanuel Presbyterian Church, 1100 N. Astor Street and join us for a day of Welsh fun.

At 2:00 p.m., we will gather at All Saints' Cathedral, 818 E. Juneau Avenue, Milwaukee for An Afternoon Tea, in the British Tradition. Reservations are required; $15 per person, $100 for a table of eight. Call 414-271-7719.

At 4:00 p.m. we begin Welsh workshops at Immanuel Presbyterian Church. We are honored to have Gwenith Closs-Colgrove with us to present information about the Great Plains Welsh Heritage Project, home of the Archive for Welsh America in Wymore, Nebraska. Also, we will have an eisteddfod (check the 2023 WGGAW newsletter on our website, wggaw.org, for information on registering for the eisteddfod). As time permits, Danny Proud will provide a quick Welsh language class and Jan Jones Batty will share tips on researching your Welsh relatives in Wales.

At 6:30 p.m. we gather at the Joyce Room at County Clare Irish Inn & Pub at 1234 N. Astor Street for dinner and Noson Lawen singalong. Bring your favorite instrument, be prepared to share your talents, or just come and enjoy! Check back with our website, wggaw.org, for dinner options.

If you plan to stay overnight in Milwaukee, nearby hotels are County Clare Irish Inn & Pub, 1234 N. Astor Street 414-272-5273 or The Knickerbocker on the Lake, 1028 E. Juneau Avenue 414-276-8500.

On Sunday afternoon, join in a traditional Gymanfa Ganu (Welsh hymn sing) at 2:30 p.m. at Immanuel Presbyterian Church, 1100 N. Astor Street. Our director is Robert Evans from Illinois, Pipe Organist is Steve Jensen and Special Music is provided by soprano soloist Gwenith Closs-Colgrove of Lincoln, Nebraska. Te bach ("a little tea") to follow.
